SO ORDERED

Re: Smith v. Duquesnay, Lois Bloom, U.S.M.J., Index #07-cv-2795(RJD)(LB)

Dated: 12/22/09

Brooklyn, New York

Dear Judge Bloom:

Counsel is reminded All
FILINGS must be made electronically.

I am in receipt of the Court's Order, dated December 17, 2009, requesting that this office provide the full name and correct service address for Parole Officer Lisa Duquesnay. Today I also received a request for representation from Parole Officer Duquesnay, along with an acknowledgment of receipt of summons and complaint by mail, which Parole Officer Duquesnay executed on December 1, 2009. Accordingly, I forwarded the acknowledgment to the U.S. Marshals, and I filed a notice of appearance via the Court's ECF system indicating that I will be representing Parole Officer Duquesnay in this matter.

Thus, as I have just been assigned to this case, I respectfully request, on behalf of Parole Officer Duquesnay, an extension of time in which to answer, move, or otherwise respond to the Complaint to January 21, 2009. This extension will give me time to investigate the allegations raised in the Complaint, and will give me time to discuss a course of action with my client. This is defendant's first request for an extension. The Plaintiff has not been contacted for his consent because of the delay involved in communicating with an incarcerated inmate.

Respectfully Submitted,

Chm
